Service for All Souls

A service, for All Souls, will be held at All Saints on Wednesday 2 November at 7.30 p.m. As in previous years, names of those who have died will be remembered as part of the service and the list of names kept under the altar cloth until All Souls Day 2012. The list of names extends beyond members of either congregation. It also includes, not just those who have died in the past year, but anyone who is missed and whom you wish to be remembered before God at this service.

Should you wish someone to be remembered please add their name to the list at the back of the church.

AGM and Congregational Lunch

This year's AGM will be held on Saturday 5 November at 11.00 a.m. The meeting will be followed by a congregational lunch. Please, give lunch bookings and apologies to Sue Clarke.

Anyone who has responsibility for an aspect of church life is asked to submit an annual report to Sue Clarke as soon as possible.

Scottish Voices

Some people might be interested in this event. Scottish Voices is a choir run by the Royal School of Church Music. It meets about 8 times a year for a day's rehearsal and then sings a service in the late afternoon.

On Saturday, 5 November, this is happening in St Aloysius and we are singing a Palestrina Mass in an actual mass service at 5.45 p.m.

Visit to Balmore Coach House

Following a conversation with John Riches over coffee after the Eucharist the other Sunday, Rosamond, remembering that in the past Sue Brough organised such sprees, thought it a good idea to reintroduce a Christmas Shopping Lunch at Balmore Coach House. I agree. And to that end, we suggest Tuesday 8 November. Who'd like to join us? The more the merrier! Speak to Rosamond or Jan.

Heelster Gowdie Concert

For those who fancy a more sedate form of foot-tapping culture than the ceilidh dancing on Saturday night, Heelster Gowdie (David Brough's band!) is putting on a Concert in aid of The Mothers' Union at St James the Less, Bishopbriggs, could be just the thing for you.

It takes place on Friday 11 November and starts at 7.30 p.m. Tickets are available in advance from Wendy Petrie on 0141 772 5923, and we expect, at the door on the night.

Milngavie Churches Ceilidh

Held in the Town Hall, starting at 7.30 p.m. on Saturday 12 November, this promises to be a very lively full-of-fun event – the Milngavie Churches Ceilidh. As well as all-age dancing, there will be a Light Indian Finger Buffet and a Silent Auction. Wouldn't it be nice for St Andrew's to be represented here? Should you be interested in joining a party at this ceilidh, please give your names to Jan who has tickets. £10.00 donation per person or £25.00 donation per family.

St Andrew's Coffee Morning

A MUST for everyone's diary is St Andrew's Coffee Morning on Saturday 19 November! Come along! Bring your Christmas spending money, granny and your friends. And be prepared to Spend! Spend! Spend! and Chat! Chat! Chat!

Have Fun While Helping to Support St Margaret's Hospice at the 82nd Glasgow Company, The Girls' Brigade Fundraising QUIZ

open to all in need of care

This year, again in support of St Margaret's Hospice, Clydebank, the 82nd Company, Girls' Brigade is arranging a fund-raising quiz in St Paul's Church on Thursday 24 November from 7.00-9.00 p.m. Young and old are invited to participate. Let's muster a couple of game, mixed-aged teams to represent St Andrew's. Do you know anything about modern music, football, general knowledge? Are you game? Are you available? If so, please, give your names to Jan, Pamela or Gordon. Those of us who attended last year thoroughly enjoyed ourselves. Logan, we need you for the football answers!
